

Mumbai Research Centre of ICAR-CMFRI

“Ek Kadam Swachhata Ki Aur-2016”

In connection with Swachh Bharat Pakhawada 2016, Mumbai RC of CMFRI has organised painting competition for staff and their family members on 14.10.2016 under the theme “Making India Clean”. The competition was aimed to create awareness about activity of the Swachh Bharat Mission. The winners of the competition were felicitated during valedictory function of Hindi Pakhawada by Chief guest Dr. S.D. Tripathi, former Director, ICAR-CIFE and Dr. Anil Choubey, SIC, CSIR-NIO, Mumbai Regional Centre. The prizes were distributed under staff, women (family member) and students (family member).

First Prize (Staff)

Second Prize (Staff)

Third Prize (Staff)

First Prize (Student)

Second Prize (Student)

Third Prize (Student)

First Prize (Women)

Prize Distribution

Prize Distribution
Dr. Anil Choubey, SIC,
Regional Centre of CSIR-NIO,
Mumbai

19.10.2016

The centre had conducted various programmes to create awareness about the cleanliness. The programme was initiated with a two minutes speech by each of the staff member to make them more attentive about cleanliness/Swachhta on 05.10.2016 followed by Swachhata Spath on 19.10.2016. The centre had also carried out cleanliness programmes in public utility area, beaches, grounds, office laboratory, staff cabins and office premises.

Swachhata Pledge administered by SIC, Mumbai RC on 19.10.2016

20.10.2016

Staff of the Mumbai RC of CMFRI conducted cleanliness programme at Versova Welfare School Ground, Seven Bungalows on 20.10.2016 from 2.00 to 4.00 pm. During the cleanliness activity the plastic covers, plastic and glass bottle, other degradable and non-degradation waste was collected and transported to the BMC waste collection points.

On the same day staff of the CMFRI Mumbai RC conducted cleanliness programme at Picnic Cottage Bus stand, Seven Bungalows from 2.00 to 4.00 pm. During the cleanliness activity, plastic covers, cigarette covers & buds, plastic bottles, other degradable and non-degradation waste was collected and transported to the nearby Municipal corporation waste collection points.

Further, during the cleanliness activity on 20.10.2016 from 2.00 to 4.00 pm the staff of the Mumbai RC of CMFRI visited Versova Rocky Beach on and collected different categories of the litter like Chappals, Styrofoam, netting materials, coconuts husk, plastic covers, plastic and glass bottle, other degradable and non-degradation waste and transported to the BMC waste collection points at beach side.

Swachh Bharat Activity at Versova Welfare School Ground on 20.10. 2016

Swachh Bharat Activity at Picnic Cottage Bus Stand, Versova on 20.10.2016

Swachh Bharat Activity at Versova Rocky Beach on 20.10.2016

21.10.2016

The staff of the Mumbai RC of CMFRI conducted cleanliness programme in office campus on 21.10.2016 from 2.00 to 4.00 pm. During the cleanliness activity the scrapped materials, degradable and non-degradation waste was collected and transported to the BMC waste collection points.

Swachh Bharat Activity in office campus 21.10.2016

22.10.2016

As a part of Swachh Bharat Pakhawada (16th-31st October 2016), Mumbai RC of CMFRI jointly participated in the world's largest mass cleanup drive at Versova beach along with the Versova Residents' Volunteers (VRV), Bombay Municipal Corporations (BMC) staffs and local citizens on 22.10.2016 from 8.00 to 11.00 am. During the drive three truck load of garbage have been removed and transported to the nearby dumping station.

Swachh Bharat Activity at Versova Beach with Versova Residents' Volunteers (VRV), Bombay Municipal Corporations (BMC) staffs and local citizens on 22.10.2016

26.10.2016

Staff of the Mumbai RC of CMFRI conducted cleanliness programme in office corridor and electric room on 26.10.2016. During the cleanliness activity the scrapped materials, tube lights, wooden planks, plastic waste was collected stored in terrace and other waste transported to the BMC waste collection points.

Cleanliness programme in office corridor and electric room on 26.10.2016